FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)

What time does my child arrive at the venue?

Please arrive 20 minutes before the trial is due to start.

What does my child do when he arrives at the venue?

Find the coaching staff for instructions.

Do I need to accompany my child onto the field?

No, the coaching staff will look after all potential players.

When does my child receive his trial number?

Before the trial starts, from the coaching staff.

What is the trial number?

The trial number is written on his wrist to allow each player to be easily identifiable with the names on our registration list. He is to keep this number throughout the trial process.

When does the session finish?

We'll begin to warm down the group fifteen minutes before the end of the allocated timeslot.

How many trials does my child attend?

Your child will be able to attend two open trials that we advertise. Trials after this are on an "Invite Only" basis.

What if my son can't make one of the trials?

Please attend as many trials as your availability allows, however, after the first two open trials conclude opportunities are extended on an invitation only basis.

What if we're on holidays or have other commitments for both trial dates?

Email development@perthglory.com.au with the timeframe you will be away – please appreciate that extended holidays or other commitments will allow limited opportunities to trial.

Can the Parent group watch the trials?

Yes, but please keep your distance from the playing group as the trials are a technical process for Football Staff and Players only.

If my son doesn't make it through the trials this year, can he trial again next year?

Yes, absolutely. Sometimes players who aren't ready to play representative football yet can move past players that have been "Selected" in previous squads.

What is the best advice to give my son when trialling?

Relax, enjoy and work as hard as you can to play your best.

If I have further questions?

The Head Coach is happy to answer questions after the trials have finished on the day.
